Hexaware wins 2011 Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance

Mumbai – October 17 2011: Hexaware Technologies Limited, a leading global provider of IT, BPO and Consulting services, announced that the company has received the prestigious Golden Peacock Award for Excellence in Corporate Governance.

Established by the Institute of Directors in 1992 and instituted to celebrate and honour the best organizations and recognize unique achievements in brand building, the Golden Peacock award is recognized worldwide as the hallmark of corporate excellence. The award was presented by Honourable Mark Hoban, Financial Minister to Her Majesty's Treasury (United Kingdom's Economics and Finance Ministry) during the 11th International Conference on Corporate Governance in London.

Hexaware was judged to have met the award's exacting criteria for applying the most robust structures, processes and procedures for corporate governance throughout its operations. The honour is especially relevant given that corporate governance best practices are considered key benchmarks by stakeholders.

From a governance standpoint, Hexaware has been in the forefront of adopting best in class practices such as having separate individuals in the role of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer for several years now, having greater number of independent directors (six) in the Board of 11 and ensuring compliance to all processes on a bottom-up model. Further, all the major committees are headed by Independent Directors. From operations perspective, Hexaware has been certified to be compliant with the latest industry standards such as SEI CMMi Level 5, SAS 70 Type II, and ISO 27001 over the last year.

After accepting the award, P. R. Chandrasekar, CEO and Vice Chairman, Hexaware Technologies said "It is a matter of great pride for Hexaware to receive such a prestigious award. It is an outstanding recognition and a befitting testimony to our efforts to continually implement and follow best practices in corporate governance in our industry."

The distinguished jury at the Golden Peacock Awards Secretariat included Justice P N Bhagwati, Dr. Ola Ullsten, former Prime Minister of Sweden, Lt. Gen Surinder Nath, (retd.) former Vice Chief of Indian Army & former Chairman, Union Public Service Commission and Dr. A N Saksena - former Financial Advisor, Ministry of Petroleum & Natural Gas.
