

Hexaware wins the Golden Peacock National Training Award-2021 in the IT Sector

Mumbai, Aug 17, 2021 – Golden Peacock Awards Secretariat announced the winners of the Institutional awards in various categories and Hexaware has won the National Training Award – 2021 in the IT sector. The winners are chosen among entries from several corporates that include large, medium and small enterprises across the public, private and government sectors.

The winners of the Golden Peacock Awards were chosen from over 311 entries, out of which 146 were shortlisted. The Golden Peacock Awards evaluate the applicants on the basis of their focus and commitment to drive initiatives that not just achieve but also surpass new benchmarks of excellence.

Hexaware won the Golden Peacock National Training Award – 2021 after passing through multiple tiers of assessments by industry experts. This win clearly exhibits the level of effort and emphasis that Hexaware dedicates towards training, learning and development.

This recognition is a coveted one and a remarkable achievement for Hexaware, as it projects the true strength of Hexaware's training capabilities. Winners in other categories are renowned corporates and enterprises that are known for their adherence to industry best practices.

Celebrating this win, Senthil Nayagam - Senior Vice President, Global Revenue Assurance & Chief Learning Officer, said, "We are delighted that that our Learning & Development framework has been benchmarked with our peers and selected for this prestigious award. This is an absolute honor and a strong source of inspiration for us. We continuously strive to upskill our workforce and enable career democratization, where our employees truly own their game."
